BRAZILIAN MUTINEERS MEET SERIOUS DEFEAT

REVOLT OCCURS AMONG THE MARINES QUARTERED IN THE COBRA FORTRESS—LAND BATTERIES OPEN FIRE, ON THE RIOTERS.

TWO HUNDRED REBELS KILLED AND WOUNDED

Officers and Faithful Men Overpower Mutinous Sailors on Warships Rebels Secure an Armistice of One Hour for the Purpose of Removing the Dead and Injured—After Nine Hours Bombardment, the Mutineers Raise a White Flag.

RIO JANEIRO, Dec. 10.—The mutiny of the marine corps was quelled tonight. The mutinous battalion lost more than two hundred killed or wounded. After an artillery engagement which lasted throughout the day, mutinous naval battalions on Cobra Island surrendered tonight. The rebels were almost annihilated, losing more than 200 killed and wounded. The sedition movement, it is believed, has now been crushed, but the senate voted to declare a state of siege for thirty days.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 10.—A serious revolt occurred among the soldiers of the marine corps quartered in the fortress on Cobra Island last night. They captured their officers and sent them to the mainland. The scout ship Rio Grande de Sul joined in the uprising, but the mutinous sailors were finally subdued by their officers and a portion of the

NOMINATIONS WILL BE MADE MONDAY

President Will Probably Send Supreme Court Justices to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The nominations which President Taft will make for the vacancies in the supreme court probably early next week, are still unsettled. Even the chief justiceship, which well-informed gossip has hitherto accorded to Associate Justice Charles E. Hughes, may go to somebody else.

In fact, in more than one usually well-informed quarter it was said tonight that both the impending appointments to the court would go to men not hitherto mentioned in that connection. It is likely the president will narrow his field of selection within the next thirty-six hours and that the result may be announced on Monday.

It was said to be practically settled that Chairman Martin A. Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce commission, will be the next judge of the new commerce court. The position was, it was said, offered to Commissioner Prouty, but he preferred his present position on the commission. It is fairly certain that whoever the nominees for the vacancies in the two courts are to be, their names will local garrison that remained faithful. At half past five o'clock in the morning the guns of the land batteries were trained on the island, which lies in the bay of Rio Janeiro only a short distance from the city, and opposite the marine arsenal. A heavy fire was directed against the rebels and this continued without cessation for five hours. Then a white flag appeared and it was believed that the rebels were ready to surrender, but they asked only for an armistice, probably for the purpose of removing the dead and injured. The bombardment of the island ceased for an hour, being renewed at 11 o'clock. The land batteries and two loyal warships took part and the artillery duel continued with great violence until half past three o'clock this afternoon.

The island proved a good target for the batteries and replied with a vigorous volley, employing shrapnel. Several persons were killed along the shore and adjoining streets. The fire against the scout ship Rio Grande de Sul lasted three hours and among the killed was one officer. Small bands of rebels climbed into launches and drew near the front of the Palacio Cattete, but they were forced to retire.

go to the senate on Monday or Tuesday. This seems especially true of the supreme court nominees. Those for the commerce court may be deferred pending settlement as to the vacancies probably to be made by promotion from the personnel of the Interstate Commerce commission.

CONGRESS LABORING TO MAKE US ALL VERY, VERY GOOD BY INTRODUCING REFORM MEASURES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—This session of congress is going to do its best to do down in history as the reform meeting. The international reform bureau has its agents at work trying to have congress pass a number of bills, all with the idea of making the average man so good he will be glad to meet himself coming around the corner most any night. The senators and congressmen who have gone into the reform business are, following Gladstone's definition, "to make it as hard as possible to do wrong and as easy as possible to do right." Here are some of the reform measures to be considered: The Miller-Curtis bill (H. R. 28641, S. 5728), to remove the federal shield of "interstate commerce" from "original packages" imported into "dry" territory; the Burkett-Sims bill (S. 225 H. R. 2160), to prohibit interstate transmission of race gambling odds and bets; the Walter Smith bill (H. R. 25825), to prohibit interstate transportation of pictures and descriptions of prizefights; the Johnston Sunday act (S. 404), to forbid Sunday toll and traffic in the District of Columbia, passed by senate, pending in the house; the Curtis bill (S. 5253), to prohibit saloons in Hawaii; the Clayton bill (H. R. 11593) prohibiting United States district attorneys to engage in private practice; the McCumber-Tirrell bill (S. 2846, H. R. 14536), to forbid liquor selling in ships and buildings used by the United States government; the Foster-Culham (S. 6810) anti-narcotic bill, to regulate the manufacture and sale of cocaine, opium, etc.; a bill to forbid Sunday banking in money order and registry departments (bill approved by United National Association of Post-office Clerks); a bill to provide for sex lessons in schools of the District of Columbia; a bill to prevent the disturbance of the peace of nations by fabricated news.

SEATTLE, Dec. 10.—The opium seized today, which would have a commercial value of $10,825, if sold and not burned in a garage crematorium, was all found in the forepeak of the "Minnesota." The cache, a rude box under the spare anchor chain in the chain locker, contained 250 lb. of the drug. Twenty-nine men were found in a water bucket hung conspicuously, twenty-nine the were concealed in a pair of overalls, and small quantities of the stuff were found scattered all through the sailors' quarters, mixed with the soap and borax. Forty men will continue the search of the ship tomorrow.

EXPLOSION ENTOMBS 45 IN A MINE

Rescuers Take Eighteen Men Out
Alive and Recover Twenty Charred Bodies.

CANADIAN MINE SCENE OF CATASTROPHE

Government Is Rushing Rescue
Cars to Assist in the Relief Work.

FERNIE, B. C., Dec. 10.—Forty-five miners were entombed by the explosion last night in the Bellevue colliery, a short distance from Frank, Alberta. Eighteen have been rescued alive and twenty bodies have been recovered. Of the seven men still in the pits, four are believed to be alive. They are in the upper workings, which they succeeded in walling off to prevent the spread of gas.

RESCUES ENTER MINE.

By midnight a little more than two hours after the explosion, the mine was sufficiently clear of smoke so that workmen could enter.

Appeals for help were sent to Fernie, where the provincial government of British Columbia had recently installed rescue apparatus.

A special was made up by the Canadian Pacific railway and with physicians and nurses made record time to Frank, where the oxygen helmet and other special rescue apparatus were in great demand.

Eight Taken Out Alive.

Before morning eight men had been taken out alive. All have a good chance of recovering, though many are badly burned.

The mine is owned by the Western Canada Collieries.

RESCUE APPARATUS ORDERED.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 10.—The British Columbia government has ordered Inspector Evans, stationed at Fernie, to proceed at once to Bellevue, Alberta, with the government mine rescue apparatus to aid in the rescue work at the disaster there.

WOULD-BE ASSASSIN ON TRIAL

Case Against Kotoku, Plotter
Against Mikado's Life, Opens in Japanese Supreme Court.

DEFENDANTS FACE THE DEATH SENTENCE

Twenty-five Conspirators, Including Wife of the Leader, Face Grave Charge.

TOKIO, Dec. 10.—The public trial of Denjoro Kotoku and twenty-five associates, including his wife, opened in the supreme court today. The special court which first examined the prisoners, found all of them guilty of plotting against the life of the emperor and recommended capital punishment. The alleged conspiracy was uncovered in September. Kotoku, asserted to be the leader of the plotters, was formerly connected with a Tokio newspaper, and at one time lived in America, where, it is said, he was associated with a political organization with headquarters in San Francisco.

Described as Anarchists.

All of the accused are described by the police as anarchists.

Though the present proceedings are nominally those not directly connected with the trial, were admitted only during the formal questioning of the defendants. This over, the court room was cleared and the trial proceeded. It will continue several days.

Will Be Sentenced to Death.

It is probable that the death sentence will be returned, though there is a possibility of commutation.

The present is the first trial in which the accusation is plotting against the life of the emperor, and it is considered of great importance. The chief judge sitting is Joichiro Tsuru, and with him are Judges Shikata Tsurumi, Suyahiro, Okuro, Tsunematsu and Endo.

Attorneys for Defendants.

Matsutaro Itakura, procurator of the court of Cassation, and Attorney General Matsutaro, with special appointed assistants, are conducting the prosecution. For such of the defendants as could not secure counsel at their own expense the authorities have appointed attorneys.

KANSAS MURDER MYSTERY

Bodies of Woman Farm Owner,
Her Son and Two Hired Men
Found Dead in Barn.

SKULLS OF VICTIMS HAD BEEN CRUSHED.

Sheriff Searching for Discharged Farm-Hand, Who Had Trouble With Deceased Owner.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 10.—The bodies of Mrs. Emeline Bernhard, seventy-five years old, her son, George, forty years, a trapper named Morgan, and a hired man, named Worth, were found on the Bernhard farm at Martin City, fifteen miles south of here late today. All had been beaten to death.

Mail Carrier Gives Clue.

The four persons were last seen alive by neighbors last Wednesday. Suspicion was first excited when the rural mail carrier noticed the mail was not removed from the Bernhard box. He notified neighbors and this afternoon a number of them visited the farm and searched the premises. In the barn the bodies of the three men were found in a manger covered with hay. Their heads were badly crushed. All had evidently been dead several days. In a closet on the second floor of the house the body of Mrs. Bernhard was found. Her skull was crushed.

Ran to House After Attack.

From the position in which Mrs. Bernhard's body was lying, it is believed that she was in the barn at the time of the assault, and after being beaten about the head, ran to the house and, going upstairs, hid in a closet, where she died.

The sheriff is working on the theory that the murder was committed by a former hired hand, with whom the owners are known to have had trouble over money. Mrs. Bernhard is said to have been wealthy and, according to her neighbors, has often had trouble with men who worked for her because of quarrels over money.

Martin City is near the Kansas line, and the Bernhard farm is in Kansas.

Robbery Was the Motive.

Later investigation led to the belief that robbery was the motive for the murders, as the house had been ransacked and the pockets of the dead turned wrong side out. According to neighbors, Mrs. Bernhard always kept a large amount of money in the house.

For two or three days people living in the vicinity say a stranger has been seen near the Bernhard farm.

An old-fashioned clock-weight was found in the barn tonight. It was covered with blood and evidently was used by the murderer.

Tom Morgan, a trapper, who was one of the victims, was only seventeen years old. He lived at Rosedale, Kansas, and had been on a trapping trip in this city for a month.

INSURRECTOS SEARCHING FOR DIAZ'S TROOPS

Both Forces Are Within Forty Miles of Each Other Near Santa Isabel.

CORRESPONDENT VISITS THE REBELS' CAMP.

Rebel Captain, Yaqui Indian by Birth, Says They Must Win
Next Battle or Die.

CHIHUAHUA, Dec. 9. (Via El Paso, Dec. 10).—The federal troops and those of the insurrectos or pronunciados, as they are called, are separated by some forty miles apart. The federal soldiers are at Carretas, a hamlet of the railroad in the vicinity of Santa Isabel, west of here. The location is known from several reliable sources. They are awaiting a considerable augmentation of their number to make a surrounding movement possible.

The revolutionists were last night within a few miles of Piedras Blancas. The Associated press correspondent left them there at noon Friday afternoon after a three day trip in their midst while they were in search of their enemy. At that hour they had just discovered that a report that the federal army some ten miles distant at Cosahuatlan was en route. A movement in that direction was countermanded.

Searching for Federal Troops.

Last Wednesday at La Janta the call went forth from the federal army to Madera, Mich., and surrounding towns to concentrate forces to meet the federalists, who were reported marching on La Janta, a junction point of the Mexico and Northwestern railroad. This movement had not been consummated when the advance guard, already concentrated, moved forward to Rosario. Again there was no enemy and the march to Rosario, a hamlet near Piedras Blancas, was begun.

Thursday scouts reported sighting twelve federal scouts and a strong position was taken awaiting an attack. During the daylight hours this did not materialize, nor did it during the night, although the horses were kept saddled with eager cinches and the men slept on their arms.

At noon Friday some of the government forces at Cosahuatlan, while no action was to be in supreme command, the half dozen jeffers were working in perfect accord.

Perfectly Mounted and Well-Armed. The correspondent counted 154 perfectly mounted and armed men in the main street of Rosario today. De-

Rivers and Harbor Bill Passes House

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—In record time and spending money at the rate of $7,000,000 an hour, the house of representatives today in about three hours, passed the rivers and harbor bill, making appropriations of $21,894,861 for river and harbor work in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912.

No vote was taken, the bill being passed by unanimous consent, and with the exception of a slight typographical error in the printed bill, not a word was changed from the form in which it was presented by the committee.

Representative Alexander of New York, chairman of the committee, expressed his pleasure at the expeditious manner in which the matter had gone through.

"Clean as a whistle and without any suspicion of 'pork barrel' about it," was the way in which Mr. Alexander described the measure. "This shows that public bills can be put through without any necessity for resorting to the methods heretofore considered positively essential to their passage."

In addition to the amount carried in this bill, the sundry civil bill carries an appropriation of $7,368,077 for river and harbor improvement in 1912, bringing the total to $29,262,938. The average annual expenditure in this direction for the ten years since 1899 amounts to $22,500,000. Of the total number of items, 105 were for complete works and a like number for completing works.

United States Suing the Southern Pacific

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 10.—A legal struggle to recover from the Southern Pacific Railroad company oil lands worth $10,000,000 was instituted on behalf of the United States government in the federal district court today here. The action relates specifically to 6,199 acres in the Midway district of Kern county, and if the government is successful in wresting the title from the railroad company in this case the Southern Pacific will lose other lands worth $50,000,000 more in the same district.

Misrepresentation, fraud and deceit are charged to the railroad company in the complaint, which was filed by United States District Attorney A. T. McCormick in the name of Attorney General George W. Wickersham, who signed the documents. The complaint also declares that the government's own officials were negligent as the granted patents covering the lands to the railroad without an investigation, relying simply upon the statements of the defendant corporation regarding the character of the land.

The Kern Trading and Oil company, a subsidiary of the Southern Pacific, is named in the suit as having been organized as a dummy solely for the purpose of furthering the railroad's alleged fraudulent, dishonest and unlawful purpose of withholding the land from its rightful owner, the United States.
